

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,)
)
Plaintiff,)	8:07CR305
)
vs.)	ORDER
)
FERNANDO RAYMUNDO,)
)
Defendant.)

Raymundo is charged with using a false identity to obtain employment in the United States while being in the United States illegally. Raymundo was previously detained as a flight risk at his initial appearance (Filing No. 9). Raymundo declined to be interviewed by Pretrial Services and little is known of Raymundo apart from the ICE detainer and two prior arrests, one for driving under suspension and the other for assault involving domestic violence. No evidence was presented that a responsible U.S. citizen would serve as a third party custodian and provide for Raymundo pending the disposition of these charges. While Raymundo may not want to flee the United States, he is facing a mandatory sentence of imprisonment in this case. He has shown an ability to assume another person's identity. He would have the ability to abscond from the immediate area and take up an assumed lifestyle with his family at another location in the United States.

IT IS ORDERED:

DATED this 9th day of November, 2007.

s/Thomas D. Thalken
United States Magistrate Judge